1. Headline

Reflect on what you've heard. What ideas would you like to see brought to life in your community/organisation? Take a minute each to share your thoughts with your group. Listen for themes that emerge. Then, write the headline you'd like to become reality.

WRITE A HEADLINE THAT REFLECTS THE 2030 YOUR GROUP HOPES FOR.

HEADLINE (5-10 WORDS)

TIPS

- be succinct
- dream big!
- listen to others
- look for a common thread between the things that resonated for you
- think about how your local paper or news station might report on this - what would they say?

2. The backstory

Now, it's time to write the story behind the headline...

WHAT 3 THINGS HAPPENED IN YOUR COMMUNITY OR ORGANISATION TO MAKE THIS HEADLINE POSSIBLE?

1

WHO / WHAT INFLUENCED THEM?

Think about the key relationships (real or imagined) that might the change possible?

2

WHERE ARE THE SEEDS OF THAT CHANGE VISIBLE NOW?

Often good things are happening right under our noses! What project or initiatives are already underway in your community that align with your good news story?

3

If you run out of room, use the back of the sheet :-)

When time's up, you'll rejoin the larger group to share your headline, then invite offers of help to take the next steps.

3. Next steps

Who is missing?

Who else might be impacted by this idea? Whose voice needs to be heard? How might you invite their participation?

Offers

Who will help you take the next steps?

WHAT IS BEING OFFERED?

BY WHOM?
